MOM...

HEY DAD'S DIARY
Diary

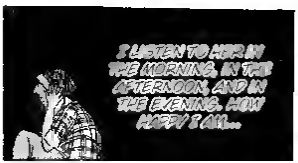
MAYBE HE'S TALKING ABOUT MOM IN HERE...
I HAD NO IDEA HE WAS KEEPING A DIARY
LET'S SEE 17 YEARS AGO...
7TH JULY THE 1ST YEAR THE MAE FAN
SSSHHII

SHIZUE IS STILL NOT IN LOVE WITH ME.

THEREFORE, I DECIDED TO GIVE HER A TEDDY BEAR WITH A SMALL BUG HIDDEN INSIDE

I WOULD LIKE TO SEE HER MUCH MORE OFTEN, TO BE WITH HER ALL THE TIME...

NOW I CAN ALWAYS HEAR HER VOICE!



I LISTEN TO HER IN THE MORNING, IN THE AFTERNOON, AND IN THE EVENING. HOW HAPPY I AM...

JULY 20TH - SUNNY. I FINALLY SUCEEDED IN GIVING THE TEDDY BEAR TO SHIZUE...

MY HEART IS SO SHATTERED THAT I DECIDED TO KILL THAT GUY.
JULY 25TH - RAIN. I LEARNED THAT SHIZUE HAS A BOYFRIEND.
I MUST HURRY AND MAKE HER MINE!!
AUGUST 5TH - RAIN. I KILLED THE GUY... I SPLIT HIS HEAD OPEN WITH A HAMMER AND BURIED HIS CORPSE BEHIND THE HOUSE.
AUGUST 6TH - RAIN. I CAN'T WAIT ANYMORE. TIME IS PASSING AND SHIZUE MIGHT HAVE ANOTHER BOYFRIEND...

AUGUST 7TH - RAIN.
I WAITED FOR SUNNY
AFTER CLASS. I DRAGGED HER AND TOOK HER TO MY HOUSE.

AUGUST 9TH -
SUNNY SHIZUE
TRIED TO ESCAPE
I CUT OFF HER LEGS SO THAT SHE WOULDN'T TRY IT AGAIN

AUGUST 8TH -
SUNNY SHE YELLED WHEN I TOOK OFF HER
GAG. THEREFORE,
I HAD TO SEW HER
LIPS TOGETHER WITH A NEEDLE
AND THREAD
SHE CALMED DOWN

AUGUST 10TH - SUNNY. THE CRITICAL PERIOD
IS OVER. SINCE
SHE'S LOSING
HER STRENGTH, I
HAD TO INCREASE THE INFUSION RATE. I WOULD LIKE FOR HER TO GET BETTER.

AUGUST 11TH -
SUNNY. SHIZUE
HAS A FEVER.
AUGUST 12TH -
SUNNY. SHE IS STILL HAVING A FEVER. MAYBE BECAUSE OF HER WOUND

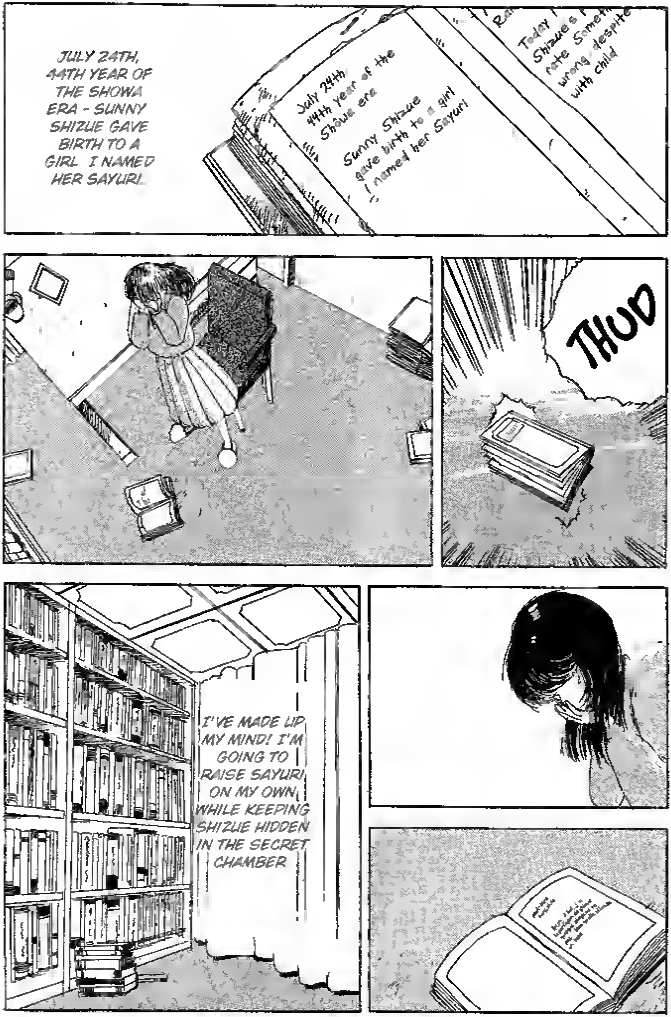
SHE WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO ESCAPE SHE'S MINE ALONE!
AUGUST 20TH - RAIN SHIZUE CRAWLED TO THE CORRIDOR AND TRIED TO MAKE A CALL. THEREFORE I CUT OFF HER ARMS.
I LOVE SHIZUE MORE THAN BEFORE, EVEN IF SHE'S ONLY A BALL OF FLESH.
I'M CONTINUING WITH THE PERFUSIONS SO THAT SHE WON'T DIE...
TO THINK THAT I WILL ALWAYS BE WITH SHIZUE MAKES ME SO HAPPY...



JULY 24TH, 44TH YEAR OF THE SHOWA ERA - SUNNY SHIZUE GAVE BIRTH TO A GIRL. I NAMED HER SAYURI.
July 24th 44th Year of the Shôwa era
Sunny Shizue gave birth to a girl I named her Sayuri
Today Shizue's ... ...ate. Something wrong despite ... with child
THUD
I'VE MADE UP MY MIND! I'M GOING TO RAISE SAYURI ON MY OWN, WHILE KEEPING SHIZUE HIDDEN IN THE SECRET CHAMBER

IN SHORT, ASAMI-CHAN LOVED YOU
BUT IT DIDN'T WORK OUT IN THE END. SO SHE TRIED TO KILL HER SISTER.
SHE TRIED TO PASS HER BROTHER-IN-LAW OFF AS A PERVERT SO THAT HER SISTER WOULD HATE HIM ...

2 KIMONO (Page 8)

Traditional silk costume, which may sometimes be worth exorbitant sums, depending on the quality of its materials and the making. There are different types of kimono, corresponding with an art of dressing but also with a real codification tied to ancestral Japanese traditions. Unfortunately, factors like Westernization, the price and the practical aspect of it result in the fact that nowadays it is rare to see people in kimono daily.

Here, it concerns a Furisode kimono (a particularly fine and brightly coloured quality silk), worn by young girls on a special occasion : a ceremony taking place on the second Monday of January. Furisode is offered by parents to their daughter(s) when they turn 20 years old. It symbolizes their entrance into the world of "adults". So it's a sign of celibacy or an invitation to a wedding. Girls can wear it for weddings or tea ceremonies.

3 BUTSUDAN (Page 8)

Butsudan is a Buddhic altar (wood case) which, in the past, was present in every home (in 1993, 47% of the families still owned one, according to an article from the newspaper Asahi Shimbun). Placed in an isolated room, a statue or a picture of Buddha as well as ancestor photos are set up. Offerings (food) are made to the ancestors. Incense and candles are lit. It's the place of religious worship for the whole family. This day and age, Butsudan is increasingly disappearing from the homes of the major cities. Some elderly are trying to preserve this tradition in the countryside.

4 NEW YEAR (Page 8) – OSHÔGATSU
Christmas is only an opportunity to celebrate in Japan For Japanese, New Year (Oshôgatsu) is far more important It's the occasion to bring the whole family together grandparents, parents and children A happy New Year is being wished, most often by sending a card. The preparations are very ritualized People hope to gain happiness and prosperity for the year to come For example, it is common practice to make special dishes, served in multi-layer boxes (jûbako)- also see (6)

5 For New Year, tradition requires to go to a Buddhist temple, on the night of the 31st December till 1st January There, each person rings a bell 108 times to erase the 108 sins of mankind.

6 OSECHI, READ "OSÊTCHI" (Page 9)
These are delicious dishes composed of various vegetables, fish and meat and served in jûkabo (multi-layer boxes) in connection with the New Year The tradition goes back to the Edo period. Their making combines health (very nutritious), harmony (genuine culinary composition) and joy (good wishes for the New Year) all the while playing on the symbolism of the ingredients (for a jolly year- konbu (seaweed), for a healthy year kuro-mame (black soy), etc) During that time, the woman doesn't cook, she prepares these dishes several days in advance and preserves them From now on, it's possible to buy them as prepared food in groceries or department stores There are varying recipes depending on the region

7 OTOSHIDAMA (Page 10)
On January 1st children receive a decorated money envelope like the New Year's gift in the West Children play traditional card games and play kite

8 SUFFIX (Page 11)
The suffix - kun is for the forename of boys
The civility suffix – san means "Mister" , "Madam" or "Miss"
The suffix - chan marks sympathy, "my little one" (girl or boy)

9 CALENDAR (Page 19)
The Japanese calendar is divided up into several eras tallying with the reigns of different emperors Here, it's 1968, also named the Showa era (1926 to 1988), which saw the emperor Hirohito rule till 1989 Currently, we're under the reign of Emperor Akihito in the Heisei era. The Christian calendar is also used in Japan

10 DIARY (Page 10)
As a rule, people indicate the time it is, the day in hand

11 KANPAI (Page 82)
Expression to say "Cheers!" or " Bottoms up!"
